Upcoming Shows

Barefoot in the Park

A “domestic” comedy written by Neil Simon, the world’s most successful playwright. It tells the story of a conservative young lawyer and his irrepressible bride who struggle with marital discord after the ecstasy of the honeymoon gives way to the reality of setting up housekeeping in a five-flight walk-up in New York.

February 13-15 & 20-22, 2003
at the Decatur Civic Center Theatre

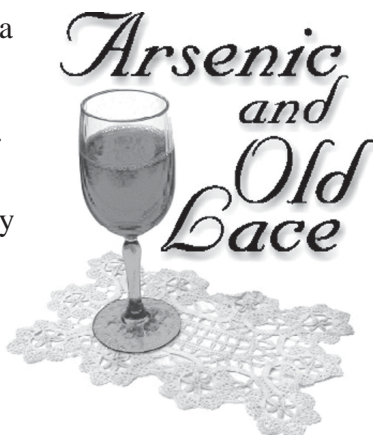

Tickets available to the general public beginning Monday, January 19, 2004.

Auditions for Barefoot in the Park

Directed by Anne Thompson

Monday & Tuesday, December 1 & 2 - 7:00 p.m.
Theatre 7 Headquarters - 131 N. Water St.

A dark comedy about a frazzled drama critic who, with two old aunts who poison lonely old men as “one of our little charities,” one sociopath brother who looks like Boris Karloff, one bonkers brother who thinks he’s Teddy Roosevelt, and one impatient new bride, has only one night to make a crazy mess of characters all turn out alright.

April 16-18 & 23-25, 2003
at the Decatur Civic Center Theatre

Tickets available to the general public beginning Monday, March 22, 2004.

Theatre 7 Building Renovation Fund

Theatre 7 has begun a renovation project of its headquarters building at 131 N. Water St. In order to finance the improvement of this downtown building, a campaign is underway to raise at least $50,000.

Your contribution to the Theatre 7 Renovation Fund will ensure the presence of another attractive storefront to brighten streets of downtown Decatur and will help keep the area vibrant and welcoming.

All the money raised in this campaign will be used to renovate the building, including the storefront, paint unique color features on the building's façade, and repair the second and third story windows.
