THE STORY

The internationally popular game is now a fun-filled musical which brings the world's best-known suspects to life and invites the audience to help solve the mystery: Who killed Mr. Boddy, in what room and with what weapon? You decide!

The audience will receive forms to help them figure out who did it from clues given throughout the evening. Three audience members will choose cards representing the potential murderers, weapons and rooms. There are 216 possible solutions! Only one hard-nosed detective is qualified to unravel the merry mayhem.

Comic antics, witty lyrics and a beguiling score carry the investigation from room to room. Even after the culprit confesses, a surprise twist will delight the audience. This crowd pleaser was devised by the authors of Murder at Rutherford House and other popular interactive entertainments.

Please be considerate of actors and your fellow audience members and silence your phones during the performance. Videotaping or other video and audio recording as well as flash photography is strictly prohibited.

CAST

In order of appearance

Denotes first performance with Theatre 7*

Ben Wilson*

Ben has been in love with theatre since he was a wee lad. He's been involved in numerous productions around Decatur including "Fiddler on the Roof" as Tevye, "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat" as Joseph, and "West Side Story" as Tony. I now have the pleasure of taking the stage once again with all of these lovely actors and actresses. It has been fun working with you guys and gals!

Gina Tomlinson

Gina plays Mrs. Peacock in this show. This is her fourth show with Theatre 7. She first auditioned with them back in February and although it's been a busy year, she's had a blast with this group. She loves the theater and loves Theatre 7!

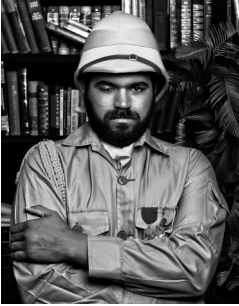

Brock Hayden*

Brock received his B.A. in Theatre from Millikin University in 2016. Previously seen on the Millikin mainstage as Lurch in "The Addams Family" and at Pipe Dreams in "No Exit," he is tickled pink (or rather, purple) to play Professor Plum! Brock hopes to continue working in local theatre and plans to migrate to Chicago to work professionally in the future. He would like to thank his professors at Millikin and his family and friends for their support. Also, full disclosure, although he's playing a potential murderer, he's actually really nice!

CAST

Cameron Williams

This is Cameron's second performance with Theatre 7. He was possibly the best Patsy in any film or television special ever performed anywhere ever in "Spamalot." He's lived in Decatur my entire life. He's an avid arts consumer, maker and lover.

Tyler Bowlin*

Tyler is a freshman Theatre major at Millikin University. Before "Clue the Musical," Tyler was cast in "Hairspray" as Corny Collins, "Little Shop of Horrors" as Seymour, "High School Musical" as Troy Bolton, "Women and Wallace" as Wallace, "Inside AI" as Inside AI and "Our Town" as Stage Manager.

Merijha Branson

Merijha's love for theatre began as a child watching "The Sound of Music" and "The Wizard of Oz." I've played a variety of roles on stage and backstage (costuming, set design and even directing) beginning with one act plays in high school. Although I love to portray different characters, my favorite roles are the ones I play every day — wife, mother and teacher. Thank you Ryan, for being a loving and supportive husband. Hutson and Ethan, I love that you have followed in my footsteps and often find roles to play on stage as well. And finally to my students — you can be and do anything you set your mind to!

CAST

Emily Massey*

This is Emily's first role she's been cast in since "Fiddler on the Roof" in high school. She's super excited to be in this production. Outside of the theatre, she likes to knit and crochet and loves to cuddle with her kitty.

Emily Steele

Blimey! Emily's inner Anglophile knew years of watching "Downton Abbey" and "The Great British Bakeoff" would pay off. Emily previously worked with Theatre 7 in "The Great American Trailer Park Musical," "Spamalot," several dinner theatres and produced "The Last Round-Up of the Guacamole Queens." Offstage, Emily works in marketing and is a graduate student at University of Illinois. She volunteers with PawPrint Ministries and her comfort dog Sophie, also happens to be a very patient partner to practice a cockney accent with. Emily would like to thank Jake for his endless support as well as tolerating her R.A.T.s — random acts of theater. Cheers!

ABOUT THEATRE 7

Who Are We

Theatre 7 is a 501 (c)3 non-profit, all-volunteer organization, dedicated to fostering an interest in theater arts. Theatre 7 has provided quality live entertainment in the Decatur area since 1964. Community support helps Theatre 7 present a variety of theater productions in our local community.

How We Do It

Theatre 7 survives thanks to the hard work and dedication of its volunteers and donations from the community. A successful stage production requires many volunteers working behind the scenes before, during and after the show. Everyone working on a Theatre 7 show is a volunteer. No one gets paid to act, direct, build sets, make costumes or gather props. It costs thousands of dollars to produce a live stage production. Our fundraisers, ticket sales and donations help us stay alive.

Get Involved

As a volunteer run community theatre group, Theatre 7 welcomes anyone interested in becoming involved. There are many opportunities onstage and behind the scenes. We need actors, carpenters, lighting and sound technicians, directors, musicians, choreographers and donors! Whatever your area of interest — whether you want to be a performer, are interested in volunteering your carpentry or sewing skills, want to make a donation or simply want to make new friends, Theatre 7 has a place for you!

Support Theatre 7

Ticket sales alone do not support the costs of a production, or pay for the utilities and upkeep of our downtown Decatur building. Individuals, companies and organizations can help by becoming a patron, making a charitable donation, purchasing program ads or sponsoring a show.

THEATRE 7 HISTORY

Theatre 7 started as a spinoff from another Decatur theatrical group called Town and Gown. It was directed by Gerald Michel, a Millikin University theater director who preferred doing the classics. A number of members wanted to do more commercial material, and after rehearsal one night discussed starting a new theater group. In December, 1963, about 30 people organized what would later become Theatre 7.

Theatre 7's name has no meaning or significance and was simply created at the suggestion of Ralph Donovan. It was selected to reflect the trend of the day — the whole "name with a number thing."

Today, there are more than 150 members who perform onstage and work behind the scenes, as well as community supporters. Our production history includes comedies, drama, musicals, one-act plays, mysteries, dinner theaters, variety shows and also a travel troupe.

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Murder, Mystery & Mayhem!

Thank you for coming to the show, and thank you for supporting the arts in your community! My name is Tanya Haubner and this is my second season directing with the amazing and talented actors, production members, musicians, promoters, community organizers, and theater supporters engaged with Theatre 7. Over the last five years I have been on the stage in "Spamalot," behind the stage in "Glass Menagerie," on the producer card for "Explorers Club," in the director chair for "Last Roundup of the Guacamole Queens," and so much more.

The Theatre 7 family has embraced me and my family and I am so thankful to have them as part of our lives. I have also been so lucky to have an amazing cast and crew and I cannot thank them enough. I also want to thank all of the Theatre 7 members and supporters who helped our organization expand further into the community this season. Keep a look out for even more Theatre 7 sightings in the area as we deliver a whole lot of community action and a whole season of murder and mystery!

In "Clue," the game is literally afoot and the uncertainty never stops! With six suspects, six potential crime scenes, and six potential murder weapons, this show is a hearty, hilarious whodunit with an ending chosen by YOU, the audience! The finger-pointing and re-figuring may never end!

Last, but certainly not the least, I want to thank my family for putting up with me not being at home and my AMAZING husband and Master Builder Brian Haubner for never letting me forget that I can do anything I put my mind to and that he is behind me 110%.

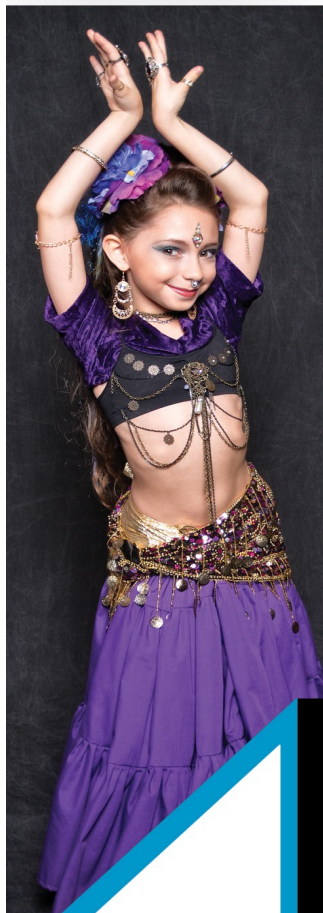

Now we ask you to sit back, laugh and play along as we present "Clue!"
